“Studies, Cities, Professors, Friends, Culture, Fun equals lifetime experience. Thank you Medfor and Erasmus Mundus for such an amazing memories.”

Daniel Hagos Berhe, from Ethiopia

Studied in University of Lisbon and University of Tuscia

"In my life, I have made lots of decisions that impact my life. Of these decisions, my decision to join MEDfOR was one of the best decisions I have ever made. For me MEDfOR was everything. I gained the knowledge and skill that I wished to acquire in my academic life and I build confidence. Above all, I met very nice people from all walks of life. Hence, I recommend international students to join MEDfOR to achieve their dreams.

Danilo Gonçalves, from Brazil

Studied in University of Padua and University of Valladolid

"MEDFOR has been one of the best experiences I've had in my life. In these two years I had the wonderful opportunity to make friends from all over the world, to live in two different countries and learn about their cultures and to study in the best forestry schools of Europe. I am very grateful to MEDFOR for being part of this unforgettable experience!"

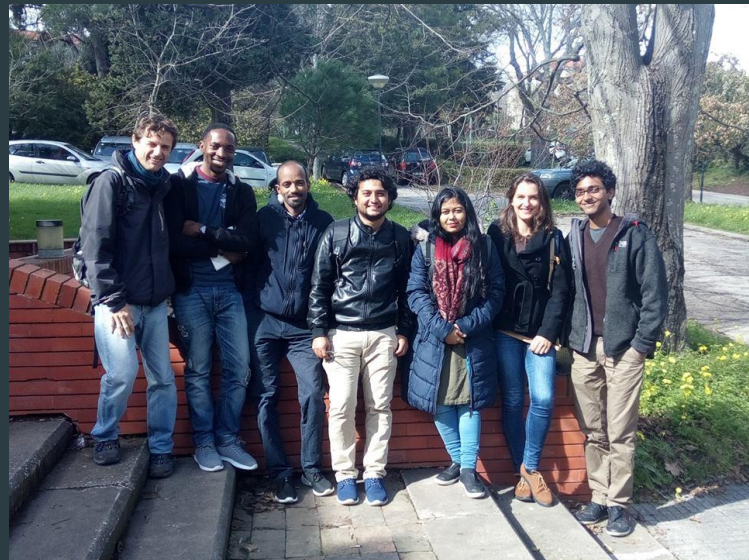

Ishan Kanungo, from India

Studied in University of Lisbon and University of Tuscia

"The program was a very unique opportunity to study different aspects of forestry and ecology in an international setting with highly experienced professors and students from around the world. Altogether, it has been among the most rewarding experiences of my life."

Koffi Dodji Noumonvi, from Togo

Studied in University of Padua and University of Lisbon

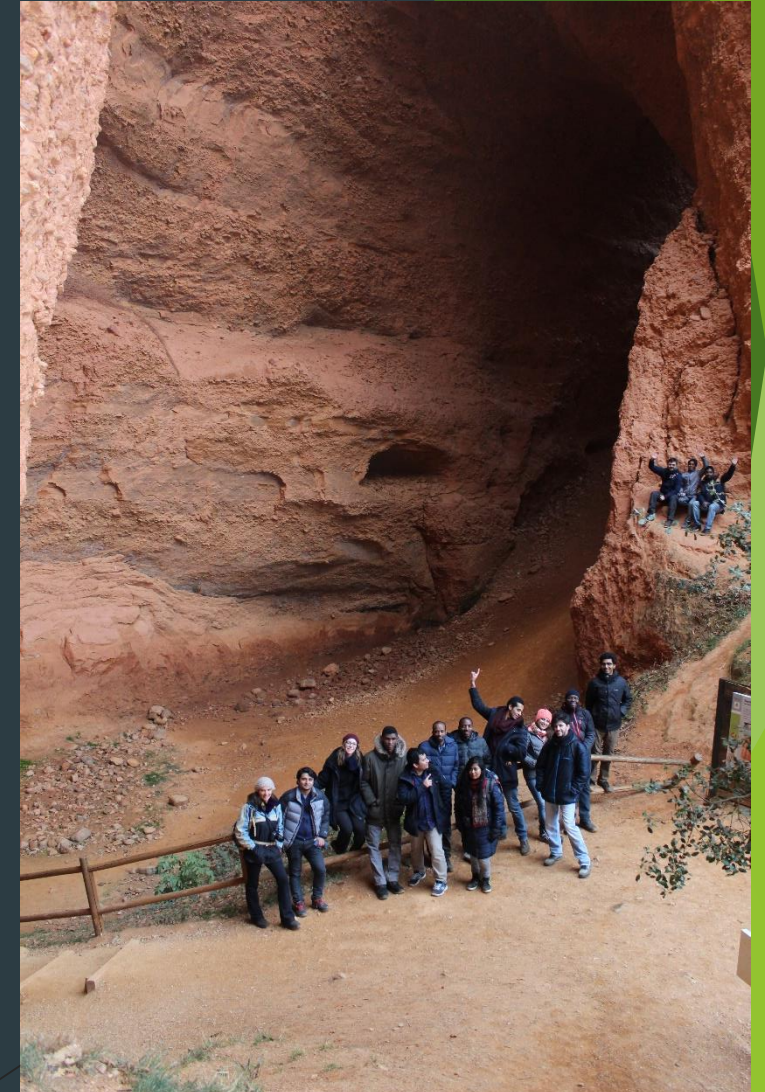

"For me, MEDfOR was 3 in 1: Learning, enjoying and bonding"

Md Ekramul Haque, from Bangladesh

Studied in University of Padua, University of Lisbon and University of Lleida

Motaz Abdelaziz, from Egypt

Studied in University of Lisbon, University of Padua and University of Lleida

"Literally, it is the best experience I had in my life, thanks to the mobility, multi culture joints and the fantastic professors. The most important thing I have learned that is “sometimes you win and sometimes you learn”, there is no time wasted, however, life is a learning process.”

Nayeli Alejandra Estevez, from USA

Studied in University of Padua and University of Lisbon

"Medfor was the best experience I've had in learning what I am passionate about. "

Noélia Lopez, from Spain

Studied in University of Lisbon and University of Lleida

"The MEDfOR Program provided an excellent chance for me as a person and as a forestry engineer. During these two years I have been living and studying in different countries (Spain, Portugal and France), and it was exciting and challenging, but the most fabulous things that surpassed my expectation were the people I met during these fantastic years. (...) Indeed, it has been a pleasure to get involved in the Master program and to become a part of the MEDfOR family. Sincerely, it has been a unique, rewarding and unforgettable experience in all respects!

Peter Bufeh, from Cameroon

Studied in University of Lisbon and University of Padua

"MEDfOR has been the most rewarding experience of my life so far. (...) From studying in three wonderful European universities and cities, to the awesome field trips was definitely some of my most fun moments of the program.(...) To sum up my experience at MEDfOR: hardwork, great friends, accessible faculty and a wonderful international and intercultural study environment."

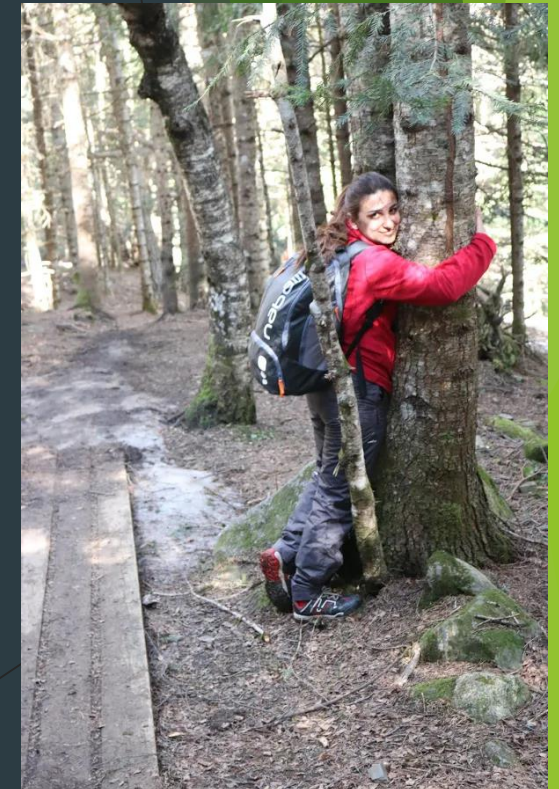

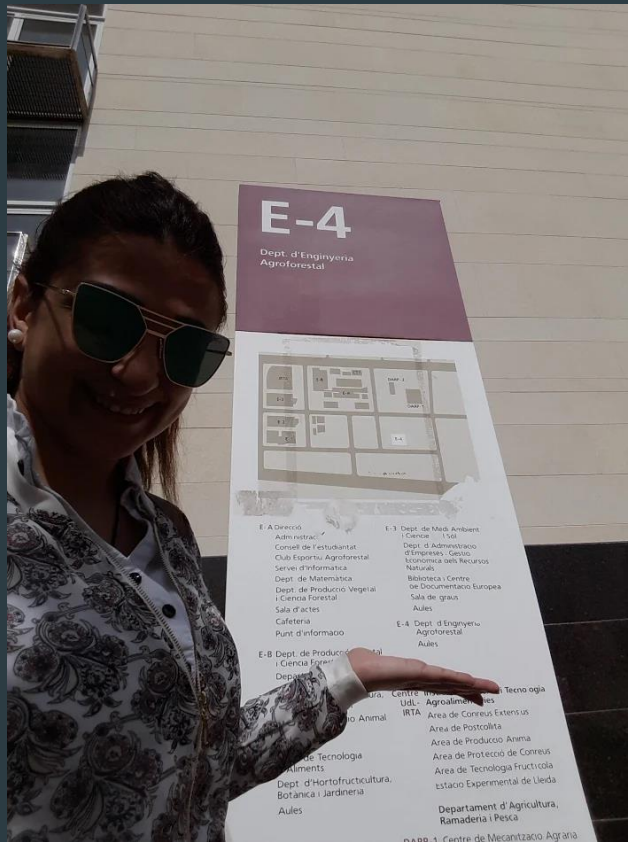

Siba Ghadba, from Syria

Studied in University of Lleida and University of Padua

“MEDFOR changed my view of myself and gave me the opportunity to discover my potential.”

Samson Omokaro Osadolor, from Nigeria

Studied in University of Lisbon and University of Tuscia

“For me, the net gain since joining the MEDFOR Programme have been tremendous, despite the hurdles. (...) The course has been a lot of hard work, constantly stretching me, but it has been tremendous fun as well and I am very glad I was able to take part. (...). My experience to date has been richly memorable and I highly recommend this challenging and richly rewarding programme.”

Susana Dreveck, from Brazil

Studied in University of Lisbon and University of Tuscia

“During MEDfOR I was able to recognize my best skills as a professional and those I need to improve.”

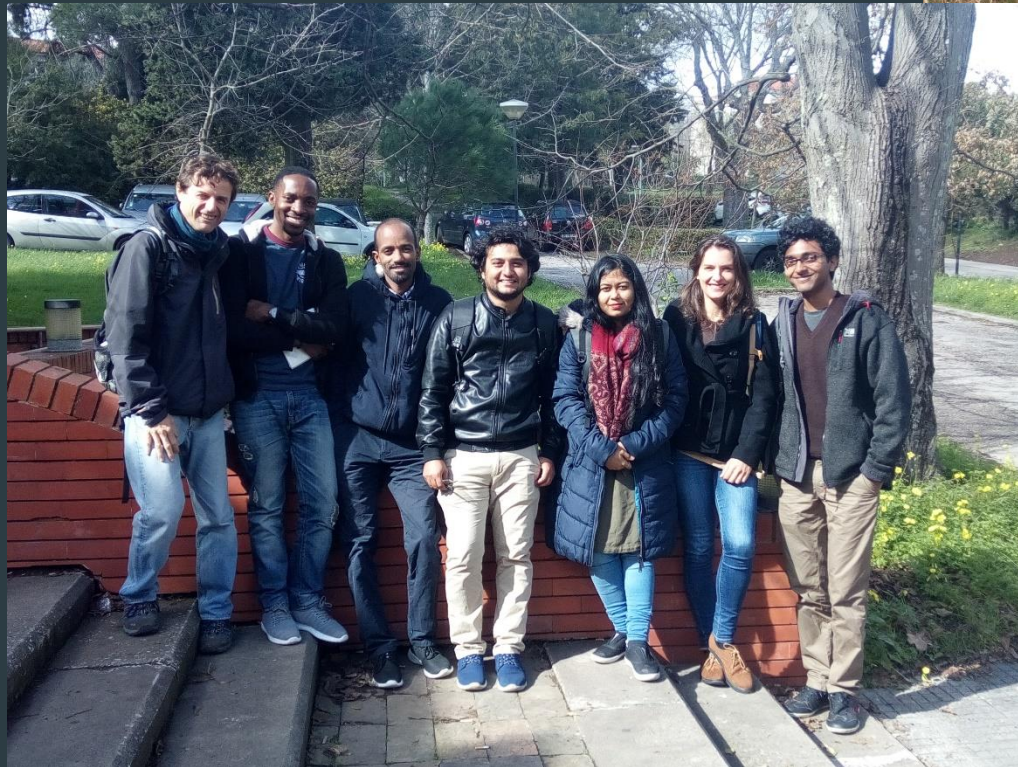

Sushmita Rani Saha, from Bangladesh

Studied in University of Lisbon and University of Tuscia

"For me MEDfOR is the host of knowledge, experience and good souls, the memory is always cherish able, I will never let them dry."
